

How do you: “See A City”?

announcing a competitive photography exhibition
at UCA’s Baum Gallery of Art

The “Art of the City” exhibition

- will feature photographs of the City of Conway that show Conway as an urban area
- will explore how Conway residents see the transformation of their town to a city

CHS and University/College students enter FREE; adults: $15 per image.
Submit 8” x 10” glossy prints, color or black and white, high quality digital or film-based photographs (Do NOT frame or mat)
Deadline: on or before Monday, January 2, 2006 deliver or mail (carefully packaged) to Baum Gallery: 101 McAlister Hall, UCA, 201 Donaghey Ave., Conway, AR 72035
10 - 15 Entries in each category will be chosen for exhibition
Jurors for four submission categories:

High School: Dr. Deborah Kuster, Art Education Professor, UCA
College/University: Maxine Payne, Photography Professor, Hendrix
Adult Professional: Timothy Hursley, Professional Photographer, LR
Adult Amateur: Gary Caywood, Photography Professor, UALR

Exhibit: Opens Thurs, Jan 19, 2006 at UCA’s Baum Gallery and will be available for travel and display after the exhibit closes Thursday, February 27, 2006.

Entry information and entry forms printable from the Baum Gallery website: www.uca.edu/cfac/baum

Entry Form
Name	_____
Mailing Address	_____ _____
Telephone(s)	_____
Email	_____
Category	_____
Medium (circle one):	film	digital
List entry by title	Fee(s)
(Each photographer may submit up to 4 entries)
1.	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____
3.	_____	_____
4.	_____	_____
		Total: _____
For further information/entry forms: www.uca.edu/cfac/baum

The Art of the City exhibition is sponsored by the Friends of the Baum Gallery through the UCA Foundation. Proceeds benefit the gallery exhibition program.